AT the Court at Kensington, the 11th Day of July, 1759,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, doth hereby Declare and Order, That all such of His Faithful Subjects, who shall Inlist themselves as Soldiers in His Majesty's Land Service, from this 11th Day of July, shall not be sent out of Great Britain, and shall be entitled to their Discharge in Three Years, or at the End of the War if they choose it—And His Majesty doth hereby further Order, That all Soldiers, who may have Deserted before the First of June last, shall be pardoned for the same, on Condition they join the Corps they last served in by the 20th of August next—And in Case the Regiment they last served in should be out of the Kingdom, that they may then surrender themselves to any other, in which they may serve, and be entitled to His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

W. Sharpe.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 26th Day of June, 1759.

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable
Privy Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fifteenth of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen, and Able bodied Landmen, to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted, and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all straggling Seamen", will expire

on the Third Day of July next.—And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the several Encouragements thereby given, should remain and continue in Force for some Time longer; — It is therefore hereby ordered in Council, that the Time limited by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation be prolonged and extended from the said Third Day of July next, to the Eighteenth Day of August following inclusive, and that the Bounties and Rewards thereby given and granted, be continued to be paid until the said Eighteenth Day of August.—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the
the 26th Day of June, 1759.

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable
Privy Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath received Information from His Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Turin, that a Polacca, under Imperial Colours, from the Coast of Barbary, is reported to have the Plague on Board, and is in those Seas, and has been seen off the Coast of Provence near Marseilles; and that the Master and several Passengers and Seamen have died on Board: And His Majesty having likewise received Information from the Vice Consul at Genoa, that a Ragusa Ship is arrived at Leghorn, and a Tuscan Ship at Marseilles, both with foul Bills of Health from Alexandria, and that the Contagion is got amongst the said Ships Crews.— And whereas it is of the utmost Importance to prevent the Contagion being brought into this Kingdom, — It is therefore hereby ordered in Council, That all Ships which are already arrived, or shall hereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or or Man, from those Seas, be strictly examined, whether they have had Communication with any of the suspected Ships beforementioned, or whether they have touched at the Morea, the Coast of Barbary, or any infected Place; and in Case such Ships shall appear to have had Communication with any of the said suspected Ships, or touched at any of the said Places, that they be then put under the like Rules of Quarantine with those now subsisting upon Ships and Goods coming from Smyrna.—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein; as to them may respectively appertain.
